

CODE OF CONDUCT

All participants in the game are bound:

1. To read and abide by the rules of the game and interdepartmental rules.
2. Not to show unnecessary obvious dissention, displeasure or disapproval towards a referee or coordinator.
3. Not to use crude or abusive language or gestures towards a referee, coordinator, participant or spectator.
4. Not to do anything that is likely to intimidate, offend, insult or humiliate another participant on the grounds of religion, sexual orientation, disability, race, colour or the national/ethnic origin of that person.
5. Not to do anything which adversely affects or reflects on or discredits the game, the Liverpool Student Union, the interdepartmental league, grounds staff, coordinators or LSU staff.
6. Not to take or be under the influence of any illegal substances.
7. Not to take or be under any obvious influence of alcohol.
8. To respect the grounds and ground staff and dispose of personal litter in appropriate bins.
9. Not to deliberately foul, injure or intimidate any other participant.
10. To accept the word of the referee without argument.
11. To be aware of LSU constitution and complaints procedure.

The Liverpool Student Union reserve the right to dismiss any participant for breaking the code of conduct.
